April, 2006

MAAG MASSA:

Hundreds of devotees of Bhagavaan Gopinathji organized a month-long Jap-Homa at Jammu Ashram, during the auspicious month of 'Magamassa' in which 2 crore and 23 lac of Nam Mantras including "Bhagavaan Gopinathji Sahasranam" were recited in praise of the lord. Devotees thronged the Ashram early morning during this month braving the severe cold. It was an awe-inspiring experience and reminded us of the days when devotees in large numbers would circumambulate the Hari Parbat Hillock during the month of Magamassa prior to the exodus of Kashmiri Pandit community from the Valley. The prayers were held for the peace and the well-being of mankind. The month-long spiritual activity concluded on the 13th of Feb, 2006 at 4:00 p.m., which had started on the 14th of Jan, 2006 under the scholarly guidance of Pt. Keshav Nathji. The spiritual activity during this month was conducted between 6:30 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. everyday.

LECTURE SERIES:

In order to promote Bhagavaan Consciousness, the Bhagavaan Gopinathji Trust undertook a programme in the shape of a series of lectures on "Our Spiritual Heritage" delivered by competent scholars during the months of Jan, Feb and Mar, 2006 on Sundays at the Jammu Ashram. The following speakers delivered their lectures on the topics indicated against each:-

1. Sh. Pran Nath Bhat "Gareeb" - Upanishads & Bhagavad Gita.
2. Swami Kumar Ji - Bhagavad Gita.
3. Prof. A.N.Dhar - My encounters with saints and how I came to Bhagavaanji.
4. Prof. B.L.Koul - Kashmir Ki Sant Parampara Aur Bhagavaanji.

5. Prof. B.L.Koul - Kundalini Yoga and Rupa Bhawani.
6. Lt. Col. R.K.Langar - Religion, Spirituality and Science.
7. Smt. Bimla Raina - Shaivism & Lalleshori.
8. Sh. Pran Nath Bhat "Gareeb" - Practical manifestation of Vedas.

There was an overwhelming response from the devotees to the holding of the lecture series based on "Our Spiritual Heritage". The lectures were well received by the audience.

HORA ASHTAMI:

As usual, the Bhagavaan Gopinathji Trust organised and celebrated the "Hora Ashtami" on the 21st of Feb, 2006. Hundreds of devotees thronged the Ashram for night-long Jagran and offered prayers at the feet of the Master. A sizeable number of artists of repute presented their items and the hall reverberated with melodious bhajans; the audience listened in rapt attention and felt ecstatic in a spirit of pure devotion. The night-long prayers were offered for invoking the blessings of the "Mother Goddess" followed by mass prayers for peace and the well-being of mankind. The Jagran concluded with Bhagavaanji's Aarti at 6:00 a.m on the 22nd of Feb, 2006.

The event was also celebrated at i) Pamposh Enclave, New Delhi ii) Kharyar, Srinagar, Kashmir and various other centres and Satsang Mandals across the country.

At the end, Sh. P.N.Kaul (Buju) distributed a small packet of salt and Re.1/- each among the ladies as the tradition demands.

A REPORT ON THE EXPANSION OF THE SRINAGAR ASHRAM:

A new concrete structure has come up at a piece of land (donated to the Trust) adjacent to the Bhagavaan Gopinathji Ashram, Kharyar, Srinagar, Kashmir. The newly constructed three-storeyed building will be available for use just before the Mahayajnya, 2006. The new structure could serve as a 'Yatri Niwas' for housing the outstation devotees for a couple of days.

The Bhagavaan Gopinathji Trust gratefully acknowledges the services that the devotees have been rendering in propagating the Bhagavaan's message under trying conditions in the Valley. They deserve all praise for having worked steadfastly under hostile weather conditions in accomplishing the project that was undertaken by the Trust on the 7th of Nov, 2005.
